

Child Care

Programme Outcome (PO)- subject Child Care

- Child Care subject provides knowledge of scientific approach towards development of the child from the conception till adolescents.
- It also deals with various other aspects in child development, care and guidance.
- Students develop professionally and work effectively on programmes for the children. They develop capacity and ability to pursue higher education .

Programme specific outcomes (PSO)-

Code 180127, Sem I, Subject- Child development-

- Students learnt about basics of child development. Students understand about physical, social, emotional, cognitive, language, moral development from prenatal to late childhood.
- They understand role of nature and nurture in development.

Code 280227, Sem II, subject - Adolescent development

- Students get acquainted with the developmental phases of adolescence and understand interactive forces and socializing agents during adolescence

Code 380327, Sem III, subject - Early childhood education (Th)

- Student understand the importance and need of early childhood education.
- They learn to plan curriculum and various skills required for conducting developmentally appropriate programmes for children.
- They gain insights into the organizations and management of the preschool centers

Code 380427, Sem III, subject- Early childhood education (Pr)

- Students acquire skills in conducting various activities for young children.
- Students become capable of conducting various aspects of curriculum and develop learning materials.

Code 480527, Sem IV, Subject- Child care and guidance

- Student develop understanding about various aspects of care which need to be given in various stages of the development.

- They also learn the importance of guidance in dealing with various aspects like behavioural problems, discipline, nutrition, career guidance etc.

Code 480627, Sem V, Management of centers for youth and child(Pr)

- Students understand the needs, objectives and importance of various centers for children and youth.
- They understand and get acquainted with the essential factors and aspects of any such centers.
- They acquire skills and competencies required in management of the centers

Code 580727, Sem V, Subject- Children with special needs

- Students understand nature of some of the disabilities in children.
- They learn importance of detecting disabilities, methods of detection, types and characteristics of it.
- They come to know about needs of the special children and services available for them.

Code 680827, Sem VI, Marriage and family relationships

- Students understand the concept of marriage, family and adjustments within it. They become aware of changing roles and relationships with family

Course outcomes (CO)

- The knowledge gain by the subjects can be effectively utilized in day to day practice and students can help themselves and other people in society for appropriate rearing up practices.
- Students can undertake further studies in ECE and PG diploma in special education and become professional.
- Students can startup their own center or small business based on their knowledge.
- Students who want to pursue counseling as their career, knowledge of child care will be an added advantage